FS Retired Pay Terminates with SM’s Death!

Military Retired Pay
SBP Basics: Authority

• SBP is an annuity program defined in 10 U.S.C. § 1447-55

  – Chapter 29, “Former Spouse Payments From Retired Pay”
  – Chapter 42, “SBP—Application of the Plan”
  – Chapter 43, “SBP—Elections and Election Changes”
  – Chapter 44, “SBP—Beneficiaries”
  – Chapter 45, “SBP—Premiums”
  – Chapter 46, “SBP—Annuities”
SBP Basics

- SBP is a “purchased annuity” that provides an income stream to the FS after termination of FS military retired pay
SBP Basics

- SBP is a “purchased annuity” that provides an income stream to the FS after termination of FS military retired pay
- The SBP annuity is ALWAYS 55% of the “base amount”
SBP Basics

• SBP is a “purchased annuity” that provides an income stream to the FS after termination of FS military retired pay

• The SBP annuity is ALWAYS 55% of the “base amount”

• “Base amount” by default if SM’s gross retired pay per month; lesser amounts can be elected but not less than $300 per month

  – Spousal concurrence required if married at time of retirement

  – Court can order lesser base amount in the FDD/DRO

• Gross retired pay less SBP premium is one component of “disposable retired pay (DRP)”
SBP Basics: Example

• Eligibility for FS SBP is suspended if FS remarries prior to age 55
SBP Basics: Example

- Eligibility for FS SBP is suspended if FS remarries prior to age 55

- Eligibility for FS SBP reinstated if FS’ subsequent marriage terminates by
  - Death
  - Divorce
  - Annulment
SBP Basics: Example

- Base amount / SM’s gross retired pay = $4,000 per month
- SBP premium = $260 per month (i.e. $4K x 6.5%)
- DRP = $3,740 per month (i.e. $4K per month - $260 per month)
- FS award of DRP in FDD/DRO = 40%
- FS military retired pay as separate property = $1,496 per month (i.e. $3,740 x 40%)

Base Amount, SBP Premium, and SBP Annuity adjusted annually equal to COLA
Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #1

No Auto-Conversion of “Spouse” Coverage

• If SM retired at time of divorce and “Spouse” coverage exists, it is terminated at divorce

• For SBP protection to be preserved, FS SBP MUST be ordered in the FDD/DRO
Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #2

Early Bird Gets the (Whole) Worm

- If FS SBP awarded in prior divorce, then FS SBP is not available in subsequent divorce
Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #2

Early Bird Gets the (Whole) Worm

• If FS SBP awarded in prior divorce, then FS SBP is not available in subsequent divorce

• Don’t bother trying to have SM ordered to make second FS beneficiary of SGLI or VGLI since any such order is preempted by Fed law
  – 38 U.S.C. Sec. 1970(g)
Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #3
No Second Bite At the Apple

- If SM retired at time of divorce and SBP declined at time of retirement*, then FS SBP cannot be awarded in divorce

* Requires spouse’s written consent
Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #4

FS SBP not in FDD, then it might not make it into the DRO

- “When signing of a DRO occurs contemporaneously with the signing of a FDD, courts construe the DRO as part of the FDD”

Hicks v. Hicks, 348 S.W.3d 281, 288 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2011, no pet.)
Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #4

FS SBP not in FDD, then it might not make it into the DRO

- “When signing of a DRO occurs contemporaneously with the signing of a FDD, courts construe the DRO as part of the FDD”
- In Hicks, the Court approved the agreement of the parties “as contained in the FDD”
- FDD made no reference to FS SPB or the DRO; as such, COA reviewed the DRO as separate order despite fact it was signed same day as FDD

Hicks v. Hicks, 348 S.W.3d 281, 288 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2011, no pet.)

- In Hicks, the Court approved the agreement of the parties “as contained in the FDD”
- FDD made no reference to FS SPB or the DRO; as such, COA reviewed the DRO as separate order despite fact it was signed same day as FDD
- FDD did not require H to name W as FS SBP beneficiary; the DRO, however, did
- TC erred in ordering FS SBP designation because DRO imposed additional obligation not in FDD

Hicks v. Hicks, 348 S.W.3d 281, 288 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2011, no pet.)
Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #5
FS Doesn’t “Have” to Pay the SBP Premium

• Decrees ordering the SM to “maintain and continue” FS SBP, without any further limitation on what is expected of SM to perfect the disposition of FS SBP coverage, are reasonably interpreted as directing that the SM bear the full cost of the premiums.

• To construe otherwise would be inconsistent with such an order because a SM who failed to pay premiums would cause the court-ordered coverage “to lapse and become a nullity”

Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #5
FS Doesn’t “Have” to Pay the SBP Premium

• “10 U.S.C. Sec 1450(f)4) provides that a divorce court may require a [SM] to elect under [SPB regulations] to provide an annuity to a former spouse”

• “[A] divorce court may order a [SM] to make post-decree payments for the benefit of his former spouse for life if such payments are directly referable to the rights and equities of the parties in community property at the time of divorce”

• “Required monthly post-divorce [SBP] premium payments do not constitute improper ‘permanent alimony’”

Limbaugh v. Limbaugh, 71 S.W.3d 1, 35 (Tex. App.—Waco 2002, no pet.)
Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #6
If FS Pays the Premium, Don’t Overpay

Only Two Way for FS to Pay Premium

1) Direct reimbursement to SM, or

2) Reduction in FS percentage award of DRP
Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #6
If FS Pays the Premium, Don’t Overpay

Only Two Way for FS to Pay Premium

1) Direct reimbursement to SM, or

2) Reduction in FS percentage award of DRP

Quiz:

- Recall, SBP premium equals 6.5% of base amount
- How much should FS’ percentage award of DRP be decreased to pay the premium in full?
Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #6
If FS Pays the Premium, Don’t Overpay

• FS already pays a portion of SBP premium due to DRP calculation

E.g.

• $4,000 Gross Ret. Pay x 40% = $1,600 per month
  “FS pay expectation” (if no SBP awarded)

Schneider v. Schneider, 5 S.W.3d 925, 930-32 (Tex. App.—Austin 1999, no pet.)
Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #6
If FS Pays the Premium, Don’t Overpay

• FS already pays a portion of SBP premium due to DRP calculation

  E.g.

  • $4,000 Gross Ret. Pay x 40% = $1,600 per month “FS pay expectation” (if no SBP awarded)

  • $3,740 DRP x 40% = $1,496 FS pay per month (FS share is $104 less)

Schneider v. Schneider, 5 S.W.3d 925, 930-32 (Tex. App.—Austin 1999, no pet.)
Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #6
If FS Pays the Premium, Don’t Overpay

  E.g.

  • $4,000 Gross Ret. Pay x 40% = $1,600 per month
    “FS pay expectation” (if no SBP awarded)

  • $3,740 DRP x 40% = $1,496 FS pay per month (FS share is $104 less)

• SBP premium of $260 - $104 “DRP contribution” = $154 “due”

• Addt’l reduction = $154/$3,740 = 4.1176%

• (40% - 4.1176% = 35.8824% of DRP)

Schneider v. Schneider, 5 S.W.3d 925, 930-32 (Tex. App.—Austin 1999, no pet.)
Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #6
If FS Pays the Premium, Don’t Overpay

Recall, $1,600 FS retired pay “expectation with no FS SBP” based on FS’ 40% award of DRP

Recall, $4K base amount x 6.5% = $260 monthly FS SBP premium

$3,470 per month DRP x 35.8824% = $1,342 per month FS retired pay

$1,600 - $1,342 = $258 (can tweak % if $2 diff is important to SM)

“Expectation”
“FS SBP compensation”
“Reduced Actual”

Schneider v. Schneider, 5 S.W.3d 925, 930-32 (Tex. App.—Austin 1999, no pet.)
Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #7

FS SBP Awarded at Max Entitlement By Law ALWAYS Results in “Death Windfall”

- Recall, SBP annuity payment is ALWAYS 55% of base amount!
- Here, $4,000 x 55% = $2,200 per month, equal to a 47% pay raise at SM’s death

SBP Basics: Example

- Base amount / SM's gross retired pay = $4,000 per month
- SBP premium = $260 per month (i.e. $4K x 6.5%)
- DRP = $3,740 per month
- FS award of DRP in FDD/DRO = 40%
- FS military retired pay as separate property = $1,496 per month (i.e. $3,740 x 40%)

Base Amount, SBP Premium, and SBP Annuity adjusted annually equal to COLA
Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #8
How to Avoid the “Death Windfall”

• Divide FS sep prop share of by 55%

• E.g.*

\[
\frac{$1,600}{0.55} = $2,909

More nuance involved—reduction in base amount leads to reduction SBP premium, which leads to increase in DRP available for FS’s share

Arguable whether numerator should be $1,600, $1,496, or $1,342 under the scenario presented. Opinion: if numerator is NOT $1,600 (equal to FS expectation prior to SBP premium), then FS continues to “pay” premium even after death of SM (which SBP doesn’t require)
Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #9

Time to file FS SB Application Matters

• If FS SBP is awarded in the FDD/DRO, the FS or her attorney MUST apply for a “deemed election” within one year of the date of divorce, otherwise DFAS will not honor the award

• Application made on DD Form 2656-10
  – SM’s signature not required
  – Certified FDD/DRO authorizing deemed election is sufficient

• If one year lapses with filing, any DRO that “clarifies” the award will be rejected to DFAS
Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #9

Time to file FS SB Application Matters

DFAS Cleveland Former Spouse SBP

1-888-332-7411

Options: 1-6-1-1-0

* Example is for Active Duty. SBP for Guard/Reserves differs slightly.
Take-Aways: Tips & Traps #7

Time to file FS SB Application Matters

• FS SBP Coverage When SM Dies While Still On Active Duty.
  – If a deemed election is in effect, then the FS will still receive an SBP annuity should the SM be vested in retired pay but die on active duty prior to actual retirement. 10 U.S.C. Sec. 1448(d)(3).
  – This provision underscores the importance of the deemed election because income protection is afforded even though a single premium has never been paid. See id.
Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP)

Reserve Corp SBP (RCSBP) has substantially different rules and options.

See paper on speaker’s website for more information.

Tip: Know that “Option C” is best for FS of Reserve Corps SM
